Getting to The Norfolk Royale Hotel

Excellent motorways and high speed trains make Bournemouth's central coastal location easily accessible from all parts of Great Britain and the continent. Central London and Heathrow are just over 90 minutes away by rail.

From London follow the signs onto the M25. Continue along the M25 and exit at Junction 12 for the M3. Follow the M3 until you see signs for Southampton and Bournemouth M27. After passing through Ringwood follow signs for Bournemouth A338. After approximately 9 miles cross straight over the first roundabout to West Town Centre. Take the next slip road (at the Richmond Hill exit) sign posted to Wimborne and Richmond Hill. At the roundabout take your 1st left into Richmond Hill. The Norfolk Royale Hotel is located approximately half way down on your right hand side.

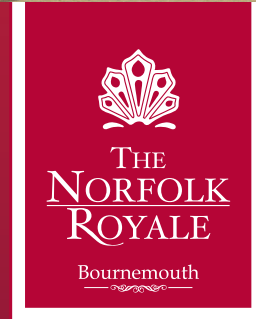

When you arrive at the hotel you may park your car on the forecourt while you check in. The concierge will assist you with your luggage. You can then park your car in the underground car park for which there is a charge.

The code for the car park is available from Reception.

The Norfolk Royale Hotel

Situated in the heart of Bournemouth The Norfolk Royale Hotel has been fully restored to reflect its original Edwardian grandeur.

Whilst still reflecting the splendour of that age, The Norfolk Royale now merges traditional and contemporary to provide 95 comfortable, well-appointed, en suite bedrooms. Families are always welcome at the hotel with several well-appointed family rooms and two Wii games rooms.

For those guests looking for a taste of luxury or simply a little more space, why not book a stay in one of our executive club rooms or superb suites?

Residents and non-residents alike can dine in style in the conservatory style Echoes Restaurant which, come nightfall, is transformed by candlelight to create a warm and intimate atmosphere.

The contrasting moods of the garden, patio, lounge, and Club Bar provide an ideal setting to relax and enjoy morning coffee, a cocktail before lunch and liqueurs after dinner in the company of friends and family or business colleagues.

Bournemouth

Bournemouth is a long-established tourist destination and is Britain's premier seaside holiday resort. Famous for its twelve kilometres of award-winning, sandy beaches, beautiful parks and gardens and a cosmopolitan atmosphere, Bournemouth blends a traditional British seaside resort with a cosmopolitan and thriving town.

In the town gardens, you can take a flight on the Bournemouth Eye tethered balloon which on a clear day gives you views of the English Channel. As well as the traditional English pier, there is also an Oceanarium, a funfair, Art Galleries and Museums.

The shopper is also well catered for in Bournemouth. High street favourites exist alongside independent stores and boutiques.

In the evenings, the town comes alive with bars, nightclubs, restaurants, shows, and concerts and throughout the year, special events provided by the local authority.
